

SPECIAL RULES OF ORDER

Motion to Adjourn

A motion to adjourn is only a privileged motion if there are no items of business on the floor.

Motion to Commend or Congratulate

A motion to commend or congratulate an individual or organization or memorialize an individual shall not be introduced in the House of Delegates.

Motion to Table

The motion to table is not used because it requires only a majority vote to limit debate.

Resolution Preamble

Resolution preamble, introductory or “whereas” clauses are not in order.

Seconding A Motion

Following proper movement of a motion, a second is not required.

Revised November 2013

Reviewed February 2026