Summary of Event: This was a fun and interactive cooking class where 22 students were taught how to make a variety of authentic dim sum recipes by the incredible and enthusiastic, Chef Joseph Poon. Chef Poon is incredibly knowledgeable in regard to culinary and nutrition. Throughout the night, he shared much of his insight with us. After frying and/or steaming the dumplings/dim sum that we each created, we were then able to eat our work and enjoy a delicious dinner. Chef Poon cooked, crafted, and supplied additional foods to supplement our meal, all of which were of the Asian Cuisine. The cooking class was held at Joy Tsin Lau restaurant in Chinatown of Philadelphia.

Plan and Preparation: Lots of communication with Chef Joseph Poon. He is a very busy man who travels across the world to teach other about cooking and nutrition. Chef Poon has an affiliation with Joy Tsin Lau restaurant, so he took care of the reservation with this venue.

Describe the Success: Super successful! All 22 people who signed up/paid was present for the event. Everyone had a blast and we hope to host this event next year!
